

MEET THE GUEST ARTISTS OF MY FAIR LADY

HARRY BOUVY AS HENRY HIGGINS

Harry Bouvy makes his Montana Shakespeare debut with this production. He just finished a very successful run of White Christmas at Drury Lane in Chicago. For a year and a half, Harry first played Dr. Chilton and then Hannibal Lecter in the off-Broadway smash, Silence! The Musical (original cast recording). In his hometown of Pittsburgh, he was Vanya in Vanya & Sonia & Masha & Spike at City Theatre; Yvan in Art at the Pittsburgh Public; and spent two seasons at the Three Rivers Shakespeare Festival. Harry played Carmen Ghia in the national tour of The Producers (Helen Hayes nomination), Sir Robin in the Vegas company of Spamalot, and wooed Cleveland audiences as Nathan Detroit in Guys & Dolls at Great Lakes Theater. Favorite regional credits include Caucasian Chalk Circle (Yale Rep), Angels in America (Syracuse Stage) and four one-man shows: I Am My Own Wife, Chesapeake, Fully Committed and This Wonderful Life. Film: The Producers. TV: "The Good Wife," "Law & Order," "Sex & The City."

SARAH STEVENS AS ELIZA DOOLITTLE

Sarah Stevens is so excited to be heading to beautiful Montana to play one of her dream roles! She was most recently seen in The New York Musical Theatre Festival as a leading role in the new musical, What Do Critics Know. Some of her favorite NYC and regional credits include; Company (Amy) - The Gallery Players Theatre; Someone to Belong To (Annie) - NYC International Fringe Festival; Sweeney Todd (Johanna) - Barrington Stage Company; Sunset Boulevard (Betty) - Portland Center Stage; The Sound of Music (Maria) - Mill Mountain Theatre; Les Miserables (Cosette) - Riverside Theatre; Fiddler on the Roof (Tzeitel) - The Maltz Jupiter Theatre. Originally from the Shenandoah Valley, Sarah received her BFA in Music Theatre from Elon University in North Carolina. She is now a resident NYC actor and works regionally around the country. She would like to send a special thank you to her endlessly supportive family and her amazing agent.
