Stretch your dollar with flexibility enhancing starter session

StretchLab, Bozeman’s premier assisted stretching providers, are now offering an introductory rate for their transformative sessions led by skilled professionals.

Valued at over $100, get a 50-minute intro stretch for only $49 for a limited time. Abbreviated stretches lasting only 25 minutes are also available for $29.

Why assisted stretching? Stretching is a simple and effective activity that helps enhance athletic performance, decrease the likelihood of injury, and assists with injury rehabilitation. How, specifically, is this accomplished? The major benefit of StretchLab’s stretching program is improved flexibility, range of motion and freedom of movement. By placing particular parts of the body in certain positions, we are able to increase the length of muscles, tendons and soft tissues. As a result, a release in muscle tension is achieved and our normal range of motion is increased.

By increasing range of motion we improve the distance limbs can move before damage occurs to the muscles and tendons. For example, the muscles and tendons in the back of the leg are put under great strain when kicking a ball. The more flexible those muscles are, the further the leg can travel forward before a strain or injury occurs. By increasing the muscles’ length we are increasing the distance over which they are able to contract. This results in a potential increase to the muscles’ power and therefore increases athletic ability, while also leading to an improvement in dynamic balance, or the ability to control the muscles.

Stretching, as part of an effective cool-down and ongoing recovery process, helps to alleviate this soreness by lengthening the individual muscle fibers, increasing blood circulation, and removing waste products.

Bozeman StretchLab’s program will also help to:

- Reduce aches, pains and stiff, tight muscles and joints
- Reduce the potential of soft tissue injuries like muscle and tendon strains
- Improve sporting performance
- Improve posture
- Increase comfort
- Develop body awareness
- Improve coordination
- Promote circulation
- Increase energy
- Improve relaxation and stress relief

StretchLab will also host two upcoming Pop Up Events. The first will take place at Complete Nutrition, 1531 W Main, Ste. 103, on Friday, April 2nd. The Gallatin Valley Mall will play host on Saturday, April 10th, in Macy’s Court. Get a FREE 15-minute demo stretch in Macy’s Court and learn about discounted membership opportunities. The events begin at 10am.

Call (406) 624-6010 for additional details and to schedule an introductory stretch. Find more information on all available services at www.stretchlab.com. •

YGM series ‘People & Place’ sets new virtual dates

Yellowstone Gateway Museum has announced its “People & Place” virtual speaker series will begin April 7th and continue Wednesday evenings through the month.

“We postponed our popular in-person programs last spring so we are excited to offer virtual programs this year, hoping to expand our reach far beyond the borders of Big Sky Country,” said Museum curator Karen Reinhart. “Each program highlights the stories of Montanans but we suspect there are a lot of people who would enjoy these programs no matter where they live.”

Award-winning author and storyteller Chris LaTray presents the series’ inaugural program on at 7pm on April 7th, with “The Day That Finally Came,” a program about the Little Shell Chippewa Tribe. He relays stories to help program attendees understand who the Little Shell people are and their part in the history of North America.

Montana’s Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians recently became the 574th Indian tribe to be recognized by the United States government, after nearly 150 years of trying. La Tray is Chippewa-Cree Métis, an enrolled member of the Little Shell Tribe of Chippewa Indians, and grew up in Missoula.

Author, YGM Curator, and native Montanan Karen Reinhart presents “Montana Women: Making Do and Making a Difference” on April 14th at 7pm, following the Friends of the YGM Annual Meeting. She includes stories of extraordinary Montana women: wives and mothers who served in traditional and non-traditional roles, as well as trailblazers. Images are from the museum’s collections.

Participants can join the meeting at 6:30pm or at the start of the program.

Author and historian Kelly Hartman presents “A Brief History of Cooke City” on April 21st at 7pm. Hartman recounts stories from her book of the same title, exploring the stories of this mountain berg’s full-time residents. For more than sixty years, Cooke City residents waited for rail until a new economy took hold – tourism. Hartman grew up in Silver Gate and was director of the Cooke City Montana Museum before her current work as curator at the Gallatin History Museum.

Paul Shea presents “Livingston & Park County: The Early Years” on April 28th at 7pm. He explores the success story of Livingston, and the county as a whole, which rose from a sleepy agricultural area that was once part of Gallatin County to a bustling railroad center and gateway to the world’s first national park. Shea uses historic photos from the Gateway Museum’s collection in his program. He retired last spring as the museum’s director.

Visit www.yellowstonegatewaymuseum.org to register for the series and watch for announcements on the museum’s social media pages. •

Emerson galleries feature pair of fresh arrays this month

Emerson Center for the Arts & Culture has announced two new exhibits on display in April.

Emergence by Kurt Palmquist began with a fascination for three-dimensional geometric forms inspired by architecture and light. Through dimensional wall art, paintings, and digital prints, Palmquist has developed a visual language that harmoniously connects all of his works. Each piece is intriguing when considered as a whole, but offers endlessly evolving compositions as you look deeper into the work. Careful use of forms and color create spaces that invite the imagination to enter and explore as if they were actual structures. Emergence is on display in the Lobby and Weaver Room Galleries through April 23rd.

The Botany of Math(re): an Exploration of Numbers and Nature by Susie Mathre delves into the intersecting relationships between plants, mathematics, and the patterns they create. Seeds and leaves of local noxious and invasive weeds, metal, wood, glass, and other elements, come together to investigate intriguing geometric shapes, spirals, symmetries and mathematical puzzles found in nature. These works are on display in the Jessie Wilber Gallery through April 30th.

These exhibits are sponsored by the Montana Arts Council and NorthWestern Energy Community Works.

All exhibits are free and open the public. Gallery hours are 10am to 5pm, Monday through Friday. Visitors must wear masks and respect social distancing guidelines for the safety and comfort of the Emerson community.

For more information about the Emerson and these exhibits, please visit www.theemerson.org. •

GVLТ recognizes Gallatin County with Trail Partner Award

Each year the Gallatin Valley Land Trust honors an individual, organization or agency that deserves recognition for improving or expanding access to trails for the community. GVLТ is proud to give to the 2021 Trail Partner Award to Gallatin County. While GVLТ has been working closely with Gallatin County on conservation easements through the Gallatin County Open Lands Program, the partnership to support trail development is more recent and worthy of celebration and praise.

Gallatin County was chosen as the recipient of the award for their work on multiple trails related projects. During the public process to develop the Triangle Community Plan, led by the Planning Coordinating Committee including representatives from Gallatin County, Belgrade and Bozeman, the community shared that they wanted to see high quality, connected, accessible and safe trails in the Triangle Area as it develops. Because of available infrastructure and proximity to population centers, the Triangle Area between Bozeman, Belgrade and Four Corners is likely to see high density residential development in the coming years.

After considerable public comment, the Triangle Community Plan identified a need for a Triangle Area Trail Plan, a vision that could ensure connectivity ahead of development. Gallatin County showed their commitment to this vision immediately and entered into an agreement with the Gallatin Valley Land Trust to financially support the creation of a trail plan for the area. The Triangle Trail Plan, still in progress, shows the community that Gallatin County shares the value of trails and is ensuring that a trail system grows alongside future development in the area.

Gallatin County has also shown leadership in their work at the Gallatin Regional Park, 100 acres on the west side of Bozeman. Their partnership with Run Dog Run has made that dog park one of the most widely used in town and a true community center for neighborhoods in the west side of Bozeman. The County also led efforts to create and groom cross country ski trails on the southwest corner of the Regional Park. These Nordic trails are the only groomed trails on the west side of town and a welcomed addition during a year where people are eager for outdoor physical activity near home.

Veterans’ mental health day

In the U.S., we lose 17 veterans to suicide every day. To raise awareness and honor the lives lost, MSU Veteran Services, MSU Bobcat Athletics and the Help Center are hosting 17 to Zero: Communities Engaging to End Veteran Suicide. The virtual event will take place Saturday, April 17th at participants’ location of choosing.

The goal of this event is to continue decreasing rates of veteran suicide by informing and empowering those in the community to reduce stigma, help veterans access mental health services, and keep the conversation about veteran mental health and well-being at the forefront. Montana is home to one of the highest per-capita veteran populations in the country, and a large portion of those veterans live right here in the Gallatin Valley.

This virtual event will encourage people to get out on April 17th to move their body and/or mind in the name of veteran mental health. Event organizers are also recruiting individual and team fundraisers to raise vital funds to support MSU veteran student mental health needs as well as the Help Center’s 24-Hour crisis and suicide prevention services.

Registration is FREE and open to all. Visit www.bozemanhelp-center.org/17-to-zero to sign up as an active participant or fundraiser. •

Fruitful futures topic at Chamber events

Bozeman Area Chamber of Commerce will present Business After Hours on Thursday, April 22nd from 5:30–7pm. Riverside Country Club will host the event at its location, 2500 Springhill Rd., on the edge of Bozeman. Established in 1959, the member-owned golf club is the only full-service, family oriented country club in the Gallatin Valley.

The next Business Before Hours comes with a new month on Thursday, May 6th from 7:30–8:30am. The event will be hosted by SCL Health Medical Group at their location, 711 West Main, in Downtown Bozeman. The newly opened primary care clinic offers its patients annual wellness checks, sports physicals, X-ray needs, management of chronic conditions and more.

Looking ahead, a spring 4:44 @ 4C is set for Thursday, May 13th at Blackfoot Communications from 4:44–6pm. They’re located at 7330 Shedhorn Drive in Four Corners. The regional internet and phone provider keeps Montanans connected with both residential and business services.

Note: all Chamber events adhere to Gallatin County health guidelines. Masks are required indoors and physical distancing protocols are in place.

Bozeman Chamber gatherings and other forums provide a business networking outlet for members and others. Visit www.bozemanchamber.com to register for any of these events and to learn more. Event admission may be included with membership. The Chamber Center is located at 2000 Commerce Way in Bozeman. •

Nervous Theatre returns to Ellen with streamable production

Get up close and personal with the world premiere of Mommy’s Dead and They Buried Her in Moscow. The production will be available to stream April 16th–18th. Show time is 7pm on Friday and Saturday, followed by a 3pm matinee on Sunday.

This theatre/film hybrid is a contemporary riff on Anton Chekhov’s classic Russian play Three Sisters, devised by Nervous Theatre’s company of actors and directed by Connor Berkompas. The Ellen performance will be captured by a single roving camera, following the action, even as it spills off the stage and into corners of the historic theatre.

Mommy’s Dead centers on siblings Irina, Olya and Masha, stuck in a remote military town, bored, homesick and wildly over-educated. Their parents are dead, and things look bleak, but one thought keeps them going – “Moscow. Moscow. Moscow!” Please note: this production contains some adult language and mature themes.

Hailed as “Ambitious and Fabulous” by the San Diego Reader, Nervous Theatre was last seen in Bozeman during their 2020 touring production of The Maids.

Virtual tickets for Mommy’s Dead are $10, with a $25 option allotting all additional profits to the actors. For more info or to purchase this event, go to www.TheEllenTheatre.org or call the box office at (406) 585-5885. ## Verge rock n' rolls out of hibernation with virtual showcase

Are you ready to ROCK? Verge Theater most certainly is! Their kick-ass, live, virtual production of AIRNESS by Chelsea Marcantel will finally deliver the goods for those who've been jonesing for Verge entertainment during "these uncertain times." The four-night event will run Friday and Saturday evenings, April 2nd-3rd and 9th-10th. Show time is 8pm each night and is just $20 per household (a wild steal if more than one person is watching).

AIRNESS, winner of the 2018 M. Elizabeth Osborn New Play Award given by the American Theatre Critics Association, is a loud, rowdy comedy that grants us access to the inner world of competitive air guitar!

When Nina enters her first air guitar competition, she thinks winning will be easy. But as she befriends a group of charismatic nerds all committed to becoming the next champion, she discovers that there's more to this art form than playing pretend; it's about finding yourself in your favorite songs, and performing with raw joy. Will Nina be able to let go and set herself free onstage? Following her mission to shred or be shredded, AIRNESS is an exuberant reminder that everything we need to rock is already inside us.

Virtual AIRNESS tickets are on sale now for only $20. Visit www.vergetheater.com for reservations and further information about upcoming classes and future productions. •

Online talk discusses role of leadership in the time of climate change

From MSU News Service

Tickets are now available for "Leadership and Climate Justice," a live Montana State University virtual event featuring Mary Robinson, a former president of Ireland and leading climate justice advocate. The event is set for 11am, Thursday, April 8th. Tickets are available to students for free and to the public on a pay-what-you-can basis.

Robinson's talk will focus on leadership, education and advocacy for the poor and disempowered in the world, who are disproportionately threatened by climate change. Following Robinson's remarks, an interactive audience Q&A will be led by MSU President Waded Cruzado.

Robinson is known as a champion for climate justice, human rights, gender equality and corporate responsibility. She served as Ireland's first female president from 1990 to 1997. In addition, she led the Mary Robinson Foundation – Climate Justice, served as the United Nations secretary-general's special envoy on climate justice, and authored the book Climate Justice: Hope, Resilience, and the Fight for a Sustainable Future. She also served as U.N. high commissioner for human rights from 1997 to 2002 and co-founded the Council of Women World Leaders.

The event is presented by the MSU Leadership Institute. It is also sponsored by the Office of the President, Associated Students of MSU, Office of the Provost, Murdoch's Home and Ranch Supply, College of Agriculture, College of Engineering, College of Letters and Science, College of Education, Health and Human Development, Sustainability Now, College of Arts and Architecture, Office of Sustainability, Honors College, Sustainable Food and Bioenergy Systems Program, UNA-USA, Net Impact and Ecology Club.

For tickets, visit http://tinyurl.com/ClimateJusticeMSU. For more information, visit montana.edu/leadership or facebook.com/MSULeadershipInstitute. •

BFS presents Oscar Shorts, illuminating docs in April

It's officially spring but that often brings about more indoor days than Montanans would like. Bozeman Film Society continues to virtually stream independent titles for movie lovers. Watch safely at home with new titles added weekly. Streaming sales directly support BFS. Here's a look at a few upcoming options.

Feast your eyes on the visual wonders of M.C. Escher: Journey to Infinity through April 8th. The story of world famous Dutch graphic artist is equal parts history, psychology and psychedelia. Robin Lutz's entertaining, eye-opening portrait gives us the man through his own words and images: diary musings, excerpts from lectures, correspondence and more are voiced by British actor Stephen Fry, while Escher's woodcuts, lithographs and other print works appear in both original and playfully altered form. The documentary runs 81 minutes.

Another doc, this one music-based, is also ready to stream through April 8th. Long Live Rock... Celebrate the Chaos is a deep dive into the culture of hard rock. The genre, beloved by its millions of fans, is often misunderstood and maligned by media and the music industry. In intimate interviews, the leading titans of rock discuss the genre and the special relationship they have with their audience. Featuring members of Metallica, Guns N' Roses, Slipknot, Korn, Avenged Sevenfold, Rob Zombie, Five Finger Death Punch, Rage Against the Machine, Greta Van Fleet, Halestorm and more, the film runs 83 minutes.

Head into the backcountry with Cowboys through April 8th. In this tender revisionist Western, Steve Zahn plays a troubled but well-intentioned father who has recently separated from his wife. After his wife (Jillian Bell) refuses to let their trans child, Jo, live as his authentic self, he takes his son on the run into the Montana wilderness. Not Rated with a run time of 85 minutes.

Available through April 15th is Oscar hopeful Minari. A tender and sweeping story about what roots us, the film follows a Korean-American family that moves to a tiny Arkansas farm in search of their own American Dream. The family home changes completely with the arrival of their sly, foul-mouthed, but incredibly loving grandmother. Amidst the instability and challenges of this new life in the rugged Ozarks, Minari shows the undeniable resilience of family and what really makes a home. The film is Rated PG-13 and runs 115 minutes.

Meet the man behind the papal robe in Francesco, streaming through April 15th. Filmmakers were given unprecedented access to His Holiness Pope Francis, providing an intimate look at a global leader who approaches challenging and complex issues with tremendous humility, wisdom and generosity towards all. Spanning issues such as climate change, migration and refugees, women's empowerment, sexual abuse and LGBTQ+ rights, the pandemic, border walls and many more, this documentary takes audiences on a worldwide journey to spotlight the incredible empathy displayed by a leader who continues to inspire hope during an extraordinary moment in our lifetime. It runs 116 minutes.

Rose Plays Julie streams through April 15th. In this shivery, psych thriller, an adopted young woman seeks out her birth mother, inadvertently triggering a string of events which change both their lives. Beneath the eerily calm surfaces of Christine Molloy and Joe Lawlor's terrific film lies a blistering and modern exploration of identity, trauma and power. Not Rated with a run time of 100 minutes.

Make new discoveries with Amundsen: The Greatest Expedition through April 15th. Roald Amundsen's dream of reaching the North Pole haunts him throughout his life. He is obsessed with the idea of discovering the last uncharted lands of the world. While he wins the race against Robert Scott to become the first man ever to conquer the South Pole, Amundsen will sacrifice everything to be the first to explore the icy wastelands of the North Pole. Not Rated with a run time of 125 minutes.

Also through April 15th, order up Another Round. Mads Mikkelsen stars in an exhilarating movie that is far weightier than its premise implies. Four friends, all high school teachers, test a theory that they will improve their lives by maintaining a constant level of .05% alcohol in their blood. As the units are knocked back – with some of the participants see improvement, while others go off the rails – it becomes increasingly clear that while alcohol may have fueled great results in world history, some bold acts carry consequences. Not Rated with a run time of 117 minutes.

Family drama The Father will be available through the month. A mischievous 80 year-old (Anthony Hopkins) defiantly refuses all assistance from his daughter as he ages. As he tries to make sense of his changing circumstances, he begins to doubt his loved ones, his own mind, and even the fabric of his reality. Rated PG-13 with a run time of 97 minutes.

Typically held at the Ellen every awards season, presentation of the popular Oscar-Nominated Shorts moves online. Catch the animated, live action and documentary shorts between April 2nd and 24th – just ahead of the big event. Run times range from 94–125 minutes.

Searing psychological thriller Every Breath You Take opens April 2nd and is available through the 22nd. A psychiatrist's (Casey Affleck) career is thrown into jeopardy when his patient takes her own life. When he invites his patient's surviving brother (Sam Claflin) into his home to meet his wife (Michelle Monaghan) and daughter, his family life is suddenly torn apart. The film is Rated R with a run time of 105 minutes.

Also available beginning April 2nd is The Marijuana Conspiracy. In 1972, young women looking for a fresh start in life endure isolated captivity in a true 98-day human experiment studying the effects of marijuana on females. Based on a true story, this film centers around five young women who shared a common goal: to make some money and have fun. Not Rated with a run time of 124 minutes.

Looking for a Lady with Fangs and a Moustache opens April 9th and can be streamed through the month. Tenzin, a modern Tibetan entrepreneur, utterly skeptical of ancient, mystical beliefs, is suddenly haunted by frightening dreams and hallucinations. A sage tells him those are omens of his imminent death. Filmed in a mesmerizing and magical Kathmandu, Tenzin will have seven days to save his life: a most unconventional, sacred journey into feminine energy. The film runs 113 minutes.

Cost and rental period vary per title. Public film screenings at the Ellen will resume when large gatherings can be safely scheduled. Follow BFS on social media for updates. Visit www.bozemanfilmsociety.org for film previews and further information – and "Keep 'Em Flickering!" •

Symphony finishes season with vibrant virtual concert

The Bozeman Symphony returns to the Willson Auditorium for its final free livestream concert of the season, "Montgomery, Mendelssohn & Bach" on April 17th, featuring its very own principal flute Sue Makeever and the string section of the orchestra. To close a remarkable season of challenges and triumphs, the Symphony presents a thrilling array of music – from classical to contemporary – showcasing the talent of leading female composer Jessie Montgomery, the wildly celebrated J.S. Bach, and the genius of a young Felix Mendelssohn.

Opening this exciting program is acclaimed New York-based composer, violinist and educator Jessie Montgomery's contemporary work Strum, a piece that the Washington Post described as "...wildly colorful and exploding with life." Principal flute Sue Makeever follows with her interpretation of J.S. Bach's Orchestral Suite No. 2, playing seven movements building to an epic finale with one of Bach's greatest orchestra works. The concert finishes with Felix Mendelssohn's Sinfonia No. 7, one of twelve string symphonies he wrote between 1821-1822.

The audience will listen in awe to his piece when the realization hits that he was only 13-years-old at the completion of this work.

The Montgomery, Mendelssohn & Bach concert will livestream to the Bozeman Symphony's website, YouTube and Facebook pages on Saturday, April 17th at 7:30pm. The Symphony wishes to thank David Ross and Risi for their season sponsorship along with Thomas J. Scanlin for sponsoring this performance. For more information about the free livestream concert, please visit www.bozemannsymphony.org. •

April Friday Forum talks health implications of legalized marijuana

From MSU News Service

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at Montana State University will present "Public Health Effects of Legalizing Marijuana" for its next Friday Forum on April 9th. The virtual forum will take place from noon to 1:30pm and is free and open to the public.

Mark Anderson, an associate professor in the Department of Agricultural Economics and Economics in the College of Agriculture at MSU, will discuss the impacts to public health associated with the legalization of recreational marijuana, which occurred in Montana in November 2020. Topics that will be covered include teen marijuana use; the use of other substances such as alcohol and opioids; traffic fatalities; and mental health.

Anderson is an applied economist with research interests in health economics and economic history. His research has appeared in leading scholarly publications, such as the Journal of Political Economy, American Economic Journal: Applied Economics and Review of Economics and Statistics, as well as public health journals such as the American Journal for Public Health, American Journal of Preventative Medicine and the Journal of the American Medical Association Pediatrics. Anderson's work has been discussed in national and international press outlets such as Time, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Forbes, CNN, NBC, ABC and the BBC.

In addition to his work on marijuana legalization, Anderson is currently studying the effects of hospital desegregation during the Civil Rights era on the black-white infant mortality gap and the effectiveness of public health interventions at the turn of the 20th century.

Advance registration is required, and attendees must register by 11am, Friday, April 9th. For more information or to register, please visit montana.edu/olli/register. Upon registration confirmation, participants will receive an email with the Webex link and instructions to join the program.

Friday Forums are offered on the second Friday of each month, September through May, by the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at MSU. OLLI at MSU is a program of Academic Technology and Outreach. ATO works across the university to support and advance its land-grant mission through unique and innovative opportunities for outreach and engagement. •

Meet Cairo! Cairo is deaf and partially blind, but that does not hold him back from living his best life. Because he is hard of hearing it would be best to live in a low traffic, mature home. Other dogs can startle him at times so he will need some help feeling safe if he doesn't hear or see them approach. He already knows some hand signals and will do anything for some cheese or hot dog.

Meet Zoey! Zoey is great with obedience and agility. She loves scent tracking, romping around a fenced yard and playing with squeaky toys. She'll give you all her love and affection. She would need to be the only pet in the home.

The Heart of the Valley Shelter is doing all services by appointment only so please call ahead.

MUSIC IN AND AROUND THE BOZONE

Pine Creek brunch boasts talented lineup of pluckers

Held during weekends in April, Pine Creek's Brunch Live Music Series has been a sure bet for COVID-era local musician showcases. The tunes begin at 11am and run until 1pm.

Addison Lea Thompson is next up on Saturday, April 3rd. She is a nationally touring honky tonk artist from Montana's capitol city.

Chandler Huntley follows on Sunday, April 4th. He draws influence from Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Guy Clark, John Prine, Robert Earl Keen and other country greats, from the current and past.

Maggie Hickman performs on Saturday, April 10th. She performs a blend of originals and notable covers, often showing off her string-work on guitar.

Sunday, April 11th spotlights Quenby. She is a classic country and roots musician from Paradise Valley.

Shelly Besler Kersbergen is set for Saturday, April 17th. The Livingston-based singer/songwriter counts Patty Griffith, Wilco and Katie Herzig among her influences.

And on Sunday, April 18th, Travis Yost entertains. Combining his love for music with unique storytelling abilities, "The Mighty Travis" will sing his songs and tell his stories to anyone that will listen.

Joe Knapp puts on a show

Saturday, April 24th. Frontman of multi-piece SlomoJoe, he's a favorite around town for his mastery of a variety of styles including Americana, rock n' roll, old time and country music.

Last up this month is Ryan Acker on Sunday, April 25th. The guitar and banjoist plays a healthy blend of Last Revel acoustic renditions, some fun covers, and originals of his own.

These shows are FREE of admission, but space is limited. Current health guidelines will be observed in the dining area. Performance dates subject to change.

Please visit www.pinecreek-lodgemontana.com to learn more about these and other upcoming events. Pine Creek hosts Trivia on Wednesday nights, BINGO Thursdays and Open Mic on Friday. •

Rockin' the Rivers announces first batch of bands for festival redux

With its initial slate of performers just announced, Rockin' the Rivers is optimistic its annual event will be a chance for live music fans to converge at summer's end. The festival is set for a triumphant return to The Bridge near Three Forks, celebrating more than two decades with its 2021 event. Performances will be held Thursday through Saturday, August 12th-14th.

This year's festival will feature appearances by Skillet, Iron Maidens, Black Label Society, 38 Special, Steven Adler of Guns N' Roses, Black Stone Cherry, Lit, Georgia Satellites, Saving Abel, Dead Fervor, Blue Tattoo, Jared Stewart, and plenty more to be announced in the coming months. As always, numerous regional acts will take to the stage to warm up the crowd! Celebrate with some of rock's favorite legends and the hottest up-and-comers. Stay to revel in the party that is uniquely Rockin' the Rivers, Montana's largest and most loved rockfest.

Tickets and camping packages are now on sale through the event website. Please note: all 2020 tickets and campsite reservations will be honored.

For two decades, Rockin' the Rivers has been bringing the music of rock legends to Montana for a three-day rock festival – the only one of its kind in the state. The legacy will (finally) continue in 2021! Visit www.rockintherivers.com for ticketing information and official outlets, camping info, and more on the festival and its awesome rockin' acts! •

Bozeman musician Dustin Tucker follows up his debut solo album, Figurine, and popular single, "Tiny Plastic Promise Ring" with another super catchy song, "Soldier." The tune feels a bit like the Gorillaz and Foster the People hanging at some sort of NeverEnding Story-themed school dance party. With "Soldier," Tucker hopes to reach a wider audience with its smooth groove, silky vocals, and passionate yet desperate lyrics of love. The song is now available everywhere you buy or stream music.

Tucker is currently working on a full-length follow-up to Figurine. Though the project is currently unannounced, the result promises to be some of his best and most complete musical work to date. Follow along with his music on Spotify, Apple Music, or Instagram (@dustintucker). You can also find him performing solo acoustic around the Gallatin Valley in support of his new single and upcoming album. Visit www.dustin-tuckermusic.com for more details.

As a songwriter, producer, and multi-instrumentalist, Dustin Tucker's music style can be described as a mix of rock riffage, soul/R&B, and groove-based pop/alternative music with catchy hooks, memorable melody, layered harmonies, and dynamic guitar builds and solos. He can be seen performing with Pink Floyd Tribute Pinky & the Floyd and is the son of late Montana legend, William Scott "Tex" Tucker. •

Tessy Lou, Cole Thorne among Sac acts to usher in spring

The Sacajawea Hotel is one of many venues inviting the live music community back into its performance spaces as COVID restrictions ease. In Three Forks, the historic property features a fine dining option and the welcome return of regular shows to its more casual bar and grill.

Amanda Stewart is first up on Friday, April 2nd. She performs acoustic, alternative and country covers – not to mention plenty of her own original music.

Frontwoman of the Shotgun Stars, Tessy Lou Williams follows Saturday, April 3rd. The country singer/songwriter is deeply rooted in traditional influences, with a spin on Western culture.

A night of Sunrise Karaoke follows an early evening set by

Luke Williams

Ryan Acker on Friday, April 9th. The guitar-playing, banjo-plucking

Saturday, April 10th showcases Three Forks' own Luke Williams. The singer-songwriter from The Last Revel plays a healthy blend of acoustic versions of the full band's songs, one or two fun covers, and some originals.

singer/songwriter picked up a thing or two from the Texas live music scene and performs soulful folk/rock.

Check out Peter King on Friday, April 16th. The Dead Yellers' frontman gears his original lyrics around the human condition, love, war and self-control. His originals tell the story of honest, blue collar life in a small town.

Chandler Huntley takes the stage Saturday, April 17th. The South Carolina native draws influence from Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Guy Clark, John Prine, Robert Earl Keen and other country greats, from the current and past.

Cole Decker performs on Friday, April 23rd, ahead of another night of Sunrise Karaoke. The Mississippi-born singer/songwriter pulls from his musical roots of old school country. He's influenced by the likes of Waylon Jennings and newer artists including Chris Stapleton, Brent Cobb and Jason Isbell.

Cole Thorne is set for Saturday, April 24th. She fronts the namesake R&B/reggae-infused band, bringing her signature vocals and ukulele to Three Forks.

Maggie Hickman closes out the month on Friday, April 30th. The Bozeman singer/songwriter performs a blend of originals and notable covers, often showing off her stringwork on guitar.

Sac live music currently runs from 5–8pm. Note: announced acts subject to change. For more information about these events, visit www.sacajaweahotel.com.

Eagles hosts weekend bands, midweek acoustics

Live acts have returned to the Eagles Bar with plenty of opportunities for local listeners to choose from in the coming weeks. Here's a look at what's happening at FOE this month.

Luke Flansburg entertains Wednesday, April 14th. He'll bring a wide variety of music ranging from funk to rock to blues. Also a member of Pinky & the Floyd, Tsunami Funk and MOTH, prepare for a fun set of with songs to warm your heart, make you cry and dance.

On Wednesday, April 28th, Greg Hall provides the live acoustics. Head downtown for your midweek cold one and enjoy his

Noted stringmasters, Eric Funk front local livestreams

Bred from the realization we could not plausibly go without live entertainment until pandemic's end, Bozeman-Arts Live! met the moment and found a modern way to bring the work of local artists into each of our homes. The group will continue its virtual broadcasts woman virtuoso Maud Powell's transcriptions of spirituals "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen" and "Deep River," among others. The concert begins at 7pm.

Following in time for Earth Day is a new film adaptation of Eric Funk's Requiem for a Forest on Thursday, April 22nd. Inspired by the Bridger Foothills Fire in September 2020, Requiem was

Close to Toast

First up is a pair of rockin' shows by Dilly Dilly on Friday and Saturday, April 2nd and 3rd. Kick off the first weekend of the month with all your classic favorites.

Kristin Lundell follows Wednesday, April 7th. The local singer/songwriter and guitarist performs catchy, melodic rock originals inspired by the likes of Veruca Salt, Juliana Hatfield and The Beatles. She'll also have the audience singing along as she puts her spin on hits that span the decades.

Country rockers BlueBelly Junction will bring the noise Friday and Saturday, April 9th and 10th. The "rockabilly" group brings an arsenal of originals and personalized covers. The high-energy band tends to veer away from slow jams, other than the occasional tune.

covers and originals that will span the genres.

Daniel Kosel breezes in for the weekend of Friday and Saturday, April 16th and 17th. His poetry, soulful vocals and guitar work make a delightful listening experience best described as "Cruces Music," a self-styled blend of country, rock and blues.

Enjoy the sounds of Chandler Huntley on Wednesday, April 21st. He draws influence from Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Guy Clark, John Prine, Robert Earl Keen and other country greats, from the current and past.

Close 2 Toast takes the stage Friday and Saturday, April 23rd and 24th. Formed from all the right elements found within the Gallatin Valley comes a band like no other, musical stylings!

Poison Lovers will finish out one month and kick off the next with shows on Friday, April 30th and Saturday, May 1st. The Bozeman-based honky tonk country rock band is led by Eagles staple Rob Lethert.

There's no better Thirsty Thursday than one with Sunrise Karaoke, setting up at FOE weekly. Sing your heart out and cheer on your friends, but please watch your distance!

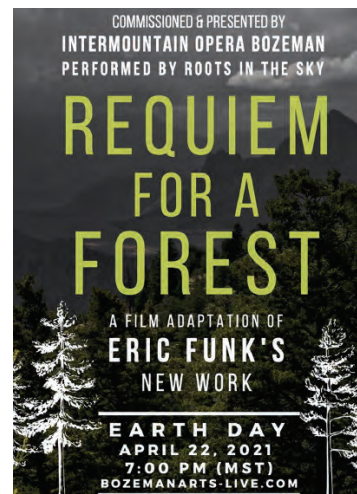

Eagles Bar live begins at 8pm Wednesday and 9:30pm Thursday through Saturday. Note: announced acts subject to change. Current health guidelines will be followed. Head downtown for some great local music or stop in for a cold one and support our hospitality industry.

in April.

First up is classical program "Our Brothers & Sisters" on Thursday, April 8th. Join Carrie Krause, Bozeman Symphony concertmaster, along with MSU piano professor Julie Gossweiler in pieces celebrating black and women musicians.

Repertoire includes the wild and intense Beethoven's Kreutzer Sonata, originally written for the virtuoso black violinist George Bridgetower, African-American academic William Grant Still's comforting "Mother and Child" based on a sculpture by Sargent Johnson, and turn-of-the-century

IOB's first-ever commissioned new work. Its return will be performed by Bozeman's own Roots in the Sky with cinematography by Thomas Thomas. Show time is 7pm.

Tune in at www.bozemanarts-live.com where you can also learn more about upcoming live streams. These performances are made possible by generous local sponsors. Contributions to the virtual tip jar are appreciated.

Indulge in eats & treats, support downtown restaurants

The Downtown Bozeman Association (DBA) and downtown eateries, pubs and cafes are proud to present the inaugural DTN BZN Restaurant Week. The seven-day showcase of downtown's best food, dessert and drink will take place Monday to Sunday, April 19th–25th.

Enjoy good eats and drinks at over 25 participating Downtown establishments featuring off-menu specials, exclusive dining experiences and opportunities to win some amazing prizes. Whether you're a breakfast fanatic or someone who never skips dessert, you'll be sure to find something to tickle your taste buds. There will be a punch card activity as well as raffles, giveaways and live events throughout the week.

Visit www.downtownbozeman.org for a list of all participating establishments, as well as their menus and features at each location. Also look for the QR code sprinkled around Downtown. Note: Please plan to enjoy this special event throughout the week. Current health guidelines will be followed at participating businesses.

Annual DBA special events include: the Christmas Stroll, Bridal Walk, Crazy Days, Art Walk series, Music on Main, Cruisin' on Main car show, and many more. The DBA also administers the Downtown Dollars program and several other downtown enhancement programs. Visit the website to learn more about these and other upcoming events.

First Fiddle Jam of '21 heads to

The Montana Old Time Fiddlers will bring their unique music – and first jam of the year – to Whitehall's Mint Bar on Sunday, April 18th. The Old Time Fiddle Jam will unfold from 2–6pm. The afternoon is free and open to the public, lunch will be available, and dancing is encouraged. Guitar, mandolin and banjo players are welcome to participate in the jam – and anyone can just come to hear some great old time fiddle music. The Mint Bar is located at 1 E Legion in uptown Whitehall.

Founded in 1963, The Montana State Old Time Fiddlers Association (MSOTFA) is dedicated to preserving old time fiddle music in Montana, providing educational and performance opportunities for musicians and listeners of all ages. Call (406) 685-3481 for more information. The MSOTFA is incorporated and operates with an elected board as a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization. In order to best serve its community and meet the MSOTFA objectives, the state is divided into districts. Each district operates with its own elected officers. Gallatin Valley Earth Day encourages local citizen action to help protect our planet from right here in the Gallatin Valley. The group came together in creation of a Bozeman festival that celebrates this vital work. Learn more by visiting the aforementioned website. •

Library forum examines intersection of people & wildlife

ways, some beyond imagining even 30 or 40 years ago. The central issue of wildlife conservation is coexistence, which is only being magnified by the numbers of people moving into our region.

To help understand how wildlife and people, conservation and coexistence fit together, the Bozeman Public Library Community Forum welcomes Mike Phillips, director of the Turner Endangered Species Fund, and Lisa Upson, director of People & Carnivores, for a virtual discussion.

“People and Wildlife: Conservation and Coexistence” will take place from noon–1pm on Wednesday, April 21st. It will be broadcasted via Zoom and no advanced registration is needed.

As we know, conserving wildlife – in the Gallatin Valley, the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem, and in public and private landscapes across Montana and throughout the West – contributes to our lives and livelihoods in many

How do we conserve wildlife and promote biodiversity across large landscapes? What are local examples of projects that conserve wildlife on ranches, farms, and public lands? If coexistence with wildlife is a primary focus of conservation, how does it work? How is it working?

Phillips will provide an overview of conserving biodiversity, and Upson will talk about how her nonprofit works with private landowners and public land managers to prevent conflicts with big carnivores – grizzly bears, wolves, and mountain lions.

Join to hear from these two experts who get their boots muddy walking the land, talking with the folks who live there, and developing strategies for people and wildlife to thrive together.

Learn more about the speakers and find a link to the Zoom broadcast at www.bozemanlibrary.org. These events are free and open to all.

A Library program of civic engagement, Community Forums are sponsored by the Bozeman Public Library Foundation and offered the third Wednesday of each month, September through May. •

Bozeman Clean Up Week

After a long winter, our beautiful community could stand a little sprucing up! Join your neighbors for Bozeman CleanUp Week, expanded to seven days in 2021. The town cleansing will run Saturday to Saturday, April 17th–24th.

The Bozeman Beautification Advisory Board welcomes individuals and groups to spend the morning helping to tidy up our town! Registrants may opt for delivery of their cleaning kits or collect them in person at the Earth Day Festival. The event is set for April 17th at the Bozeman Public Library. Head down between 10am and 1pm to collect your gloves, vests, bags and instructions.

Citizens may also choose to clean up their own areas at their convenience.

With the snow melting away, this is an opportunity to come together as a community to straighten things up in time for the anticipated summer months. Social gatherings may still be restricted but our streets will look darn good for our visiting family and friends!

Please register by Monday, April 12th at www.bozeman.net/CleanUp to accommodate supplies needed for both individuals and groups. A limited amount of additional cleaning kits will be available at the Library during Earth Day Fest. •

Last Winter Farmers’ Market

Last call for local goods and produce! The final dates of the Bozeman Winter Farmers’ Market are Saturdays, April 10th and 17th. The annual event moved to the Gallatin Valley Fairgrounds in 2020, ensuring plenty of space for exhibitors and shoppers. The markets will be held from 9am–noon.

The winter market comes at that time of the season where summer’s bounty is still available along with all of the fall gems. The markets showcase an additional 20 food and farm product vendors that allow shoppers to cross off everything on their grocery lists.

Note: the April 10th market will be held in Exhibit Building #3, with the final market moving to Exhibit Building #2. Both are FREE of admission and open to the public. Please follow the market on social media for up to date information. All event dates subject to change.

Bozeman Winter Farmers’ Market has grown from the demand for a direct producer-to-consumer experience beyond the traditional summer market season. In addition to vegetables, you can find grassfed meats, cheeses, farm fresh eggs, fermented vegetables and kombucha, honey, artisan breads and baked goods, syrups, jams and preserves, grains and oils, wool, locally grown and blended teas, ethically sourced coffee, locally pressed juices, and much more, all under one roof! ## ‘Microbes, Carbon & Climate’

Gallatin Valley Friends of the Sciences continues to present its popular lecture series this spring. Co-sponsored by Museum of the Rockies and Hopa Mountain, a pair of virtual talks in April and May will keep the conversation going as the public is vaccinated.

Next up is “Microbes, Carbon & Climate: Impacts of a Changing Cryosphere” at 7pm on Wednesday, April 14th. What can the study of microbes living in cold temperature environments tell us about the physical limits of life? Dr. Christine Foreman, Associate Professor of Chemical and Biological Engineering at MSU, will discuss how her research with deep ice cores and current environments provides insights into bacterial processes in cold places, past and present, and how carbon moves through these living systems in the context of a changing climate.

Looking to next month, “The Origin of Supermassive Black Holes” is set for Wednesday, May 12th at 7pm. What can we learn about the origin of supermassive black holes from studying small galaxies? Dr. Amy Reines, Assistant Professor of Physics at MSU, will discuss how observations of little “dwarf” galaxies using world-class telescopes are being used to reveal the birth and growth of black holes that can reach masses upwards of a billion times the Sun’s mass.

These talks will be presented online via Zoom. Free and open to the public. Find Gallatin Valley Friends of the Sciences on Facebook to RSVP or visit www.gallatin-science.org for additional details and streaming links. The nonprofit was established in 2017 to explore cutting edge science topics, their latest developments, and their relevance to society. •

Sweat for the Vets 5k

The 8th Annual Sweat for the Vets 5k is set for Sunday to Saturday, April 4th–10th. This year’s race has been extended to one week and will be conducted virtually.

Run or walk a 5k and submit your time by 6pm on April 10th. The springtime “race” will also feature prizes for top finishers. Register now at www.runsignup.com (search “Sweat for the Vets”). All profits from this event will directly benefit Warriors & Quiet Waters, a local charity that works to support veterans in our community and beyond.

Through the experience of fly fishing in Montana, Warriors and Quiet Waters Foundation is a catalyst for positive change in the lives of post-9/11 combat veterans. WQW brings these veterans to Southwest Montana for a variety of programs featuring fly fishing and therapeutic recreation. Each unique package provides transportation, accommodations, and home-cooked meals for these warriors and their loved ones. ## Gallatin Valley spring food drive

With the help of its sponsors, Gallatin Valley Food Bank will present its Spring for Food event on Saturday, April 10th. The donation drive will be set up at grocery stores in Bozeman and Belgrade between the hours of 10am and 3pm.

Locate food bins and receive a wish list from volunteers while shopping, or donate on your way out. Setting a goal of 15,000 lbs., food collected during this event will benefit the Food Bank and its child nutrition programs.

Community food and fund drives provide nutritious food and vital operating funds for the Food Bank while raising awareness of hunger issues in our community. They also provide some of the healthiest and highest-quality food the Food Bank receives.

Spring for Food is an opportunity to support a sustainable supply of food during a time when donations are less frequent. In addition, with the onset of COVID-19 last March, the Food Bank halted all food drive efforts and did not begin taking individual donations until October of 2020 due to safety concerns. This significantly impacted their food supply.

Volunteers are needed! Invite family and friends to help collect food at a participating grocery store during two-hour shifts. Training will be provided and donated food will be collected by Food Bank personnel. Monetary donations are also gratefully accepted.

Visit www.springforfood.com for volunteer registration and to learn more about the event. Find Gallatin Valley Food Bank on Facebook for the most up to date information and other activities related to “Fight Childhood Hunger Week,” April 5th–9th. •
