This summer's productions include: A Midsummer Night's Dream and Cymbeline. Montana Shakespeare in the Parks, an outreach program of the Montana State University's College of Arts & Architecture, is pleased to announce the upcoming Shakespeare in the Parks season will feature productions of A Midsummer Night's Dream and Cymbeline. "After enduring a year of uncertainty, we are so thrilled to be looking towards our 2021 season where we'll be able to once again engage our amazing communities with live free professional theatre," said Kevin Asselin, Executive Artistic Director. "Our greatest passion at MSIP is the opportunity that we've had for 49 years to bring families and neighbors together to share a picnic and enjoy the splendor of Shakespeare's world, a world that is so relevant to our own." Touring for its 49th year, the Montana Shakespeare in the Parks company will travel nearly 7,000 miles putting on productions throughout Montana and neighboring states. All performances are offered free to audiences in local parks and public spaces. Montana Shakespeare in the Parks relies on grants, corporate sponsorships, and thousands of individual donors to support the free performances. "Without question, absence makes the heart grow fonder, and MSU's College of Arts & Architecture is proud that our very own Montana Shakespeare in the Parks will be back on the road this summer," adds Dr. Royce W. Smith, Dean, College of Arts & Architecture. "We'll be working closely with the communities around our region to deliver free Shakespeare performances with an eye to all our audiences' health and well-being. We look forward to warmly welcoming audiences to another spectacular season in the coming months!" Cymbeline will run Wednesday through Saturday, June 16th–19th at 8pm each evening

Curtain opens for another round of comedy cabaret in Virginia City

The hyena laughs will once again echo off the walls of Virginia City's historic H. S. Gilbert Brewery, as the Brewery Follies have announced their summer return. Following a soft opening over Memorial Day weekend, the variety show is kicking off another sunny stretch of celebrity impersonations, sketch comedy and live music. This hilarious comedy cabaret – accompanied by your favorite Montana microbrews and standard domestics – will leave your stomach muscles sore for days from laughing and guffawing. The mission of the Brewery Follies is simple: to make you laugh while these crazy entertainers make fun of just about everything you can think of in today's political and social landscape. However, you might want to find a sitter for the kids – with laughter and beer on tap, some of the Follies' antics can be pretty irreverent. Of course, the nasty "four letter words" are left out, but the jokes might mean what "those" words mean. The Brewery Follies is rated well beyond PG-13! "...a cabaret show wild enough for any old-time miner." – Sunset "If there's a funnier or more polished show around, I haven't seen it." – Billings Gazette

"For a night of inspired madness, nonsense, foolishness and general absurdity, head to Virginia City and check out the Brewery Follies." – The Montana Standard The Brewery Follies' 2021 Season kicks off Friday, June 18th and runs through September 18th. Showtime is at 8pm, Wednesday through Saturday. Two 4pm matinees also take place on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Reservations are required by phone only. Call (800) 829-2969 ext. 3 to make yours! Please note: seating may still be limited and current health guidelines will be followed. This comedy show will keep you talking for days! Landscape oil painter opens Livingston art walks at Green Door

Green Door Gallery will host the work of Malou Flato this summer. "Small Oil Paintings" will open with an artist's reception from 5–8pm during the first Livingston Art Walk on Friday, June 25th. It will remain on display through August at the downtown space. She paints the natural forms around Livingston as well as those she encounters in her travels. The small oil paintings in this exhibit represent, mostly, the landscape of Paradise Valley. "For me, the great thing about being an artist is the feeling that I have yet to complete my best painting. Everything I make is still very fresh. My work includes watercolors, oils, acrylics, tile murals, etchings, sculpture, and digital prints. I am always looking for the next frontier." – Malou Flato The Synergigi-designed Green Door Gallery can be found just above Wheatgrass Saloon, a cold-press juice bar and eco-boutique in historic Downtown Livingston. Livingston Depot opens for new season with ‘Invisible Boundaries’

The Depot Museum is now open for the summer season. Visitors are welcome

Monday through Saturday from 10am to 5pm. The featured exhibit for the 2020 summer season is groundbreaking presentation “Invisible Boundaries: Exploring Yellowstone’s Great Animal Migrations.”

Curated by the Buffalo Bill Center of the West in Cody, Wyoming, it uses art, science, cartography and multimedia to delve into the challenges and triumphs of herds as they cross geographic, cultural, ecological and political boundaries.

The stunning multi-media experience combines the research of wildlife biologist Arthur Middleton, PhD, on the migration of thousands of elk in the Greater Yellowstone Ecosystem, the captivating photography of Joe Riis, the striking paintings and drawings of James Prosek, and the gripping film produced by Jenny Nichols.

Wildlife biologist Arthur Middleton, PhD, compiled over a decade of tracking collar data to produce the basis for an interactive map featured in the exhibit – visitors can adjust the map to reflect different seasons, herds, geographical features and political boundaries. The multi-disciplinary team has created an ecosystem-wide overview of the dynamic movements of herd animals including elk, pronghorn, mule deer and more.

Livingston is the final stop on a limited tour of the exhibit including the Yale Peabody Museum and the Natural History Museum of Utah, offering the experience to brand new audiences.

The Depot’s popular ongoing main exhibit “Rails Across the Rockies: A Century of People & Places” will also be on display. A detailed O-Scale model of the entire Depot complex was recently donated by Duane Danielson and refurbished for display by the Livingston Model Railroaders.

cut the walls, windows, and columns. Danielson spent months assembling the pieces and adding detailing like bricks, monads, a bustling ticket booth, and even a secretary pool huddled over their typewriters on the third floor.

In addition to its main exhibit, the museum also presents “The Livingston Depot in History and Architecture,” and “Film in Montana: Moviemaking Under the Big Sky,” as well as an annual featured special exhibit.

More information is available through the Depot office at (406) 222-2300 or its website, www.livingstondepot.org.

New viking exhibit supplements MOR favorites this summer

Joining its prehistoric Siebel Dinosaur Complex, a venturesome showcase has planted its flag at Museum of the Rockies for the summer. The Vikings Begin is now open and will be on display through mid-September.

The exhibition includes magnificent weapons, both for attack and defense, but also smaller treasures such as jewelry and objects of magical importance. To understand the story of how the Vikings began, the exhibition looks at their relationship with the outside world, their spiritual and magical beliefs, the role of warfare, the importance of water and waterways, and how trade routes influenced their world.

Based on cutting-edge research by Neil Price, Charlotte Hedenstierna-Jonson and John Ljungkvist, the exhibition is the premiere of a collection that has only been outside of Scandinavia a few times. With Viking helmets, swords, and weapons for attack and defense, as well as jewelry, glass vessels, bowls, the artifacts tell stories both about the society and the people buried with them.

The exhibition is divided into thematic sections on Viking warfare, maritime trade, a ship burial, Norse gods, the Baltic Sea and geopolitical relationships to other cultures, shedding new light on how early Viking society was organized, the role of women, and the development of maritime innovation that enabled the Vikings to reach faraway lands in the East and the West.

The Vikings Begin is produced by the Gustavianum, housed in Sweden’s Uppsala University Museum.

MOR’s Living History Farm is also open for the summer season, allowing visitors to experience what life was like in the Treasure State more than 100 years ago.

In 1989, the Tinsley House was relocated to Museum, bringing with it the history of Montana’s home-steading era. Skilled costumed interpreters will take you back in time as they cook over a wood-burning stove, demonstrate cooking skills and recipes from the 1890s, tend to the Heirloom Garden, and forge iron in the blacksmith’s shop. Take time this summer to enjoy the beautiful sights of the garden, the smells of home cooking, and the history of a time gone by that lives on today.

The Living History Farm is included with Museum admission. Hours are 10am–4pm daily, through August.

MOR is now open from 9am–5pm daily. For more information about featured exhibits and membership details, visit museumoftherockies.org. •

Plug into power of the sun with affordable installation

Locally owned energy installer Harvest Solar is entering Montana's favorite season with its eyes turned away from the sun and toward lowering its clients' power bills. The company currently services the Bozeman and Billings areas.

Founded in 2012, their purpose is to help community members use renewable energy to power their homes and commercial buildings, help clients lower energy costs and environmental impacts, as well as increase their home or building value. Harvest Solar prides themselves on offering a personalized experience with honesty and integrity.

With a customer-first approach, Harvest Solar staff members educate and effectively communicate with customers, ensuring a comprehensive and complete understanding of solar energy and the installation process. They're versed in the grid-tie process of Utilities and Cooperatives around the state, making it less intimidating to move towards bringing your energy bills down to zero. As electricity costs rise, now is a great time to go solar and manage these costs for years to come. There are also federal and state incentives that help reduce your costs. The federal incentive is a tax credit of 26% of the total cost of your system. Montana also offers $500 to each filer, up to $1000/home. There are also a wide array of loan programs available, including one through the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ) that offers a low 3.5% interest rate.

Harvest Solar's customer-first approach is designed to guarantee a great experience. For anyone interested in learning if solar is a right for them, getting started is as easy as sending in a copy of your power bill and address for a free quote. For more information and to get a customized design, please visit www.harvestsolarmt.com.

Support your Best of Bozeman – voting begins July 1

Montana life is quickly returning to normal after a year of physical distance and hidden faces. As the vaccines roll out en masse, we're enjoying our favorite haunts and group activities without the immediate fear of spreading a deadly pathogen to our neighbors.

Perhaps hardest hit by health directives has been the service and entertainment sector. Though we continue to take precautions as necessary, supporting those who make their livelihoods through these respective industries will be essential to getting on with it post-pandemic.

The most obvious way to offer locally affected businesses a boost is to utilize their services, another is to give them your vote.

Beginning July 1st, the polls will open for the 20th Annual Best of Bozeman. A friendly local competition, this is the original celebration of everything we love about our town and its countless offerings. Though The BoZone sponsors this poll every year, it's all of YOU who decide the winners of each category. This is an opportunity for Southwest Montanans of all ages to have their say in the crowning of area establishments, whether first-time winners or defending champions.

This year's voting will again consist of a multiple choice format, displaying area favorites from previous surveys and the option to add a choice not listed. While there are many categories to represent our area's finest, voters can decide the winners of as many or as few titles as they please.

Plan to give recognition to your favorite food and beverage hotspots, service industries, live entertainment, small businesses, nonprofits, other local destinations, and so much more.

Continuing the tradition, it's up to each and every one of you to acknowledge your Best of the Best. Log on to www.thebestofbozeman.com to peruse the complete list of 2020 winners and to make your picks. The 2021 Best of Bozeman voting window is July 1st through August 15th. •

Since its inception in 2015, Give Big has helped raise over $8.4 million for nonprofits located in or serving Gallatin Valley.

"We continued to be amazed at the generosity of this region," said Bridget Wilkinson, Executive Director of the One Valley Community Foundation. "Each year, we see an incredible outpouring of support for our local nonprofit sector through Give Big and it's so humbling to see that level of investment in our nonprofits year over year."

HAVEN, a local nonprofit committed to reducing the incidence and minimizing the impact of domestic abuse on families and communities, has participated in Give Big every year. "We were blown away by the overwhelming support from our community during Give Big 2021," added Sofie Garcelon, Development Director for HAVEN. "Our nonprofits have come to rely on this event for essential operating funds, and we are beyond grateful for the One Valley Community Foundation for orchestrating Give Big. To all of the staff, board members, donors, partners, businesses, and the entire Gallatin Valley community, thank you! We could not do this work without you."

Due to COVID-19, many local nonprofits have had to cancel important fundraising events, increase services, furlough staff, reduce salaries, and suspend income-generating programs. These challenges made this year's event the most important to date.

"This year, donations through Give Big were critical to our nonprofits that have seen an increase in demands on their services due to COVID-19 and the tremendous growth of our region," said Wilkinson.

Give Big is unique as it highlights organizations of all sizes from different areas throughout the county. This diversity is celebrated through prizes such as the small, medium and large nonprofit prizes and the community celebration prizes. In total, over $20,000 worth of prizes were awarded to nonprofits throughout the day to maximize the impact of each donation.

Stevie Croissant, the founder of We are Her, a nonprofit that was awarded a Kickoff Prize and a Newcomer Award said, "We are HER is a small nonprofit – we just don't have the capacity to pull off a fundraiser of this size on our own. Because of Give Big and the team at One Valley Community Foundation, We are HER was able to raise enough money to support all of 2021 programming, including the addition of our 2021 Retreat. We love the Gallatin County community and we're so grateful for this opportunity to add more members to the We are HER family through Give Big."

MUSIC IN AND AROUND THE BoZONE

Local music community sends-off one of its own

If mountain culture is downhill and après, Bozeman enhances the definition to include live music and brews. The pairing has become synonymous over the last several years as opportunities to scratch the tune itch have broadened and become less exclusive to the late night window.

It's hard to find a place that fails to offer a musician showcase at least one night of the week, at least before (and surely after) pandemic times. This is a fantastic reality for those looking to strengthen their artistry and hopefully make a buck or two along the way. Their dedication to the craft has become the soundtrack to our happy hour.

Heavy is the heart of that local music community as it enters its busiest season. Joe Knapp – Bozeman mainstay, bandmate and educator to many – tragically passed away during a spring trip to Nashville. Tributes aplenty have since scattered across social media, and a celebration was held late last month to spotlight his life and art with an evening of story, song, and yes, brews.

Joe played solo, in bands of his own, with other independent acts and multi-pieces, and was always ready to stand in when duty called. He had an insane knowledge of guitars, was immune to genre constraints, and was eager to groom the next generation. Joe was one of the kindest people you'd ever meet. He loved Bozeman and every stripe of person in it.

"Joe Knapp was a legend," wrote Dustin Tucker, Music Villa team-mate and brother in strings. "A man loved by everyone. His music was special, his talents were unmatched, and his heart was made of gold. He will be sorely missed by the Bozeman music community and beyond. Joe, we hope you're playing with all your guitar heroes – and thank you for the decades of friendship, family and music!"

COVID wounded our live music scene, but it's already on the mend. Joe's contributions helped build the local arena to what it is today and his longtime allyship will see that it continues to thrive. As the community begrudgingly bids adieu to one of its own, let the music keep spirits high in his honor. •

Rockin' the Rivers makes up for delayed anniversary with expanded slate

As more performers continue to be announced, Rockin' the Rivers is thrilled to give live music fans something to look forward to this summer. The festival is set for a triumphant return to The Bridge near Three Forks, celebrating more than two decades with its expanded 2021 event. Performances will be held Thursday through Saturday, August 12th–14th.

This year's festival will feature appearances by Skillet, Iron Maidens, Black Label Society, .38 Special, Steven Adler of Guns N' Roses, Larry Myer, Black Stone Cherry, Defenders of the Faith, 50 Watt Sun, Lit, Georgia Satellites, Voodoo Cadillac, Liliac, Saving Abel, Kozmik Dreamzz, Comatose Posse, 2am Logic Dead Fervor, Blue Tattoo, All Left Up, Jared Stewart, Liquid Karma, Bad

Decisions and more. As always, numerous regional acts will take to the stage to warm up the crowd! Celebrate with some of rock's favorite legends and the hottest up-and-comers. Stay to revel in the party that is uniquely Rockin' the Rivers, Montana's largest and most loved rockfest.

Tickets and camping packages are now on sale through the event website. Please note: all 2020 tickets and campsite reservations will be honored.

For two decades, Rockin' the Rivers has been bringing the music of rock legends to Montana for a three-day rock festival – the only one of its kind in the state. The legacy will (finally) continue in 2021! Visit www.rockintherivers.com for ticketing information and official outlets, camping info, and more on the festival and its awesome rockin' acts! •

Red Ants Pants turns 10! Lineup just announced

Oh how long it's been, old friend! The eagerly anticipated Red Ants Pants Music Festival is here. Held in a working cow pasture on the Jackson Ranch just outside of White Sulphur Springs, the annual festival's return is set for July 22nd–25th.

Headlining this year are three-time Grammy Award-winning Taj Mahal, fellow Grammy winners The Mavericks and up-and-comers Watchhouse (formerly Mandolin Orange). This year's main stage lineup will also feature performances by Lucero, The Lone Bellow, Hayes Carll, Suzy Bogguss, The Steel Wheels, Jeffrey Foucault, Mipso, Supaman, Parsonsfield, Martha Scanlan & Jon Neufeld, Laney Lou & the Bird Dogs, Jessie Veeder, Smith River Young and Jackson Holte & the Highway Patrol.

A FREE kick-off street dance will return to downtown White Sulphur on Thursday night. Red Ants Pants also includes a fantastic Side Stage lineup of 14 rising stars, agriculture and work skill demonstrations, beard & moustache competition, yodeling contest and cross cut saw competitions.

Outdoor stage Springs back to life with twice weekly musician sets

At long last, live music has returned to Bozeman Hot Springs. The venue hosts weekly live music from its outdoor stage, with regional and traveling musicians performing every Thursday and Sunday night at 7pm. Here's a look at who's coming up.

Exploratory bluegrass band Fountain Street Theater sets up on June 6th. The four-piece grooves and jams through a healthy blend of covers and originals, perfect for any bluegrass lover.

Local stalwart Mathias returns to the Springs on June 10th. With powerful vocals and a percussive guitar style, he is known for his dynamic live performances complete with an acoustic folk sound fueled by rock and funk.

Rock out with Bluebelly Junction on June 13th. Their energetic, borderline crazy performances feature an impressive sound and wildly entertaining delivery.

Bird Dog Josh Moore brings a one-man show on June 17th. His solo sets are marked by "feel-good" covers and originals of the folk and bluegrass variety.

Folk ensemble Wind & the Willows takes the stage on June 20th. Soak to the sounds of whimsical harmonies, strings and percussion as they highlight cuts from their latest release, Ode to Shady Groove.

Dan Henry performs on June 24th. He blends guitar with a blues-fueled sound of harmonica and vocals, covering a wide variety of genres from reggae to blues, rock, country and folk.

On June 27th, Lena "Laney Lou" Schiffer joins the Last Revel's Ryan Acker for a night showcasing their side project, The Canoe Dealers. The duo fronts a unique folk experience featuring vocal harmonies, banjo, and acoustic guitar with impressive songwriting to boot.

Bozeman Hot Springs is located just south of Four Corners. Visit www.bozeman-hot-springs.co for operating hours, further event details and fitness membership information. •

Red Tractor slices back into live music action with June shows

Following a too-lengthy hiatus, the pies at Red Tractor Pizza once again come with a hefty side of tuneage. Music Mondays are back this month, as well as regular sets by some seasoned locals. Read on for the early summer schedule.

Catch a Saturday show by Vibe Quartet on June 5th. The improv four-piece fuses a variety of instrumental music ranging from jazz standards to original funk numbers and instrumental popular tunes.

Lang Termes is back June 7th. His vocal style ranges from mellow folk ballads to growling boogie blues, showcasing the heart in his original lyrics. Lang's selection of covers ranges from early country blues to the full gamut of contemporary classics.

Settle in with PermaFunk on June 12th. Expect plenty of funky, soulful, psychedelic and Latin-infused grooves. The band is inspired by the creativity and passion of the 1970s.

Weston Lewis provides the entertainment on June 14th. His solo sets are comprised mostly of acoustic rock covers and some of his original songs. In band settings, he likes to break out the funk, jazz, country and more.

Jess Atkins takes the reins on June 19th. His finger and flatpicking styles bring to mind players like Leo Kottke, John Fahey, Keller Williams and Dave Matthews. Along with his self-penned compositions, he easily blends timeless classics with other blues and country tunes.

Butte-based balladeer Tom Susanj visits on June 21st. Known for his singer/songwriter style popular in the 60s and 70s, Tom's music brings a heartfelt nostalgia for simpler times. Like the artist himself, Tom's performances are "easy on the ears and fun for the feet."

June 27th sees the monthly return of The Dirt Farmers at 6pm. They're a foot-stomping string band whose "paisley grass" features a fun-loving mix of old school country, bluegrass, blues and rock – with the occasional slip into hip-hop.

Check out the stylings of Maggie Hickman on June 28th. She performs a blend of originals and notable covers, often showing off her stringwork on guitar.

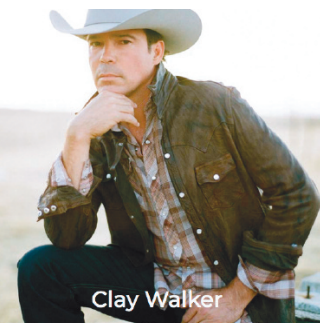

Fret not: the Red Tractor residencies return! Bridger Creek Boys and new trio Moonlight Moonlight will alternate the Thursday night slot, and Jazz Night takes over the pizzeria every Friday. Take in an evening of old-time and contemporary bluegrass, or ease into the weekend with the music styles of jazz, funk, latin, and more. Note: the Boys are set for June 3rd and 17th, with Moonlight stepping in June 10th and 24th.

Live music begins at 6:30pm on Mondays and 7pm every other, unless otherwise noted. Red Tractor is located at 1007 W Main in Bozeman. Check out their menu at www.redtractorpizza.com. •

Dustin Lynch, Clay Walker & Midland headline Country Jam

Midland

Clay Walker

Dustin Lynch

After falling victim to the pandemic last summer, Headwaters Country Jam will return to The Bridge near Three Forks for its 2021 event, Thursday through Saturday, August 19th–21st.

Headliners Midland, Dustin Lynch and Clay Walker will be joined by featured performers Craig Morgan, Mitchell Tenpenny, The Cadillac Three, Blanco Brown, Jameson Rodgers, Meghan Patrick, Madison Kozak, Ian Munsick, Caleb Lee Hutchinson, Ryan Griffin and Tim Montana for this year's festival.

Country Jam tickets are on sale now. Secure your spot with single-day and weekend general admission tickets. VIP weekend passes and campsites are also available. Reserve yours and learn more about the festival at www.headwaterscountryjam.com.

Tickets purchased for the postponed 2019/20 events will be honored.

Held every summer since 2008, Headwaters Country Jam was created to bring live country music in a festival atmosphere to Montana and the Northwest. The festival takes place at the venue known as The Bridge, an area near Three Forks comprised of 159 acres and is the final resting ground for the historic Sappington Bridge that once spanned the Jefferson River. Sixty acres are used for the state-certified campground, which holds 1,200 20x40 sites. Within the venue is a 12-acre arena where all the magic happens. Live music from national and local acts plays all day and into the night. Aside from the music, festival-goers can enjoy horseshoe tournaments, dance contests, mechanical bull riding, as well as food and merchandise vendors. •
