Avian-inspired exhibit opens at Old Main Gallery for month of May

Old Main Gallery & Framing is pleased to host "Silent Songs," a drawing and sculpture exhibition featuring new works by Jennifer Pulchinski, during the month of May. An opening reception will take place Friday, May 5th, at 5:30pm. The event is open to the public.

"Her favorite birds are magpies! 'You should bring me a baby magpie,' she said," reflects Pulchinski. "I laughed at that, thinking of magpies invading Wisconsin. I would do just about anything for my sister. When she told me she was diagnosed with breast cancer I really dove into my work. It seems any heightened emotion really pushes me into my place of comfort to investigate my thoughts, the studio. Devastation and panic is what I felt when she told me. And without any plans for a subject to draw, birds are what I started drawing consistently. I suppose they represent a kind of freedom with their ability to just fly away, as if gravity has no grip on them. Maybe a similar feeling I longed for.

"Her diagnosis was a couple years ago and as of today, she is cancer free! So when I was asked about doing a show of birds, I revisited some of those early feelings and then analyzed my feelings today to come up with this new group of drawings for this show. A silent song."

Old Main Gallery & Framing is located at 129 E Main in Downtown Bozeman. Hours are Monday through Saturday from 10am-5:30pm. Learn more about the space and framing services at www.oldmaingallery.com. •

BFS highlights stories of an artist's work & historian's research with next titles

Bozeman Film Society continues its 2023 season with two upcoming screenings this spring. The first is a Cannes Palme d'Or nominee and New York Times Critics Pick on Wednesday, May 17th.

Showing Up screens at the Emerson Center for the Arts & Culture at 7pm.

A deceptively simple drama about the artist's life, Showing Up reunites director Kelly Reichardt and Michelle Williams to absorbing effect. Preparing to open a new show in Portland, a sculptor (Williams) must balance her creative life with the daily dramas of family and friends, in a vibrant and captivatingly funny portrait of art and craft.

Directed and co-written by Reichardt (Wendy and Lucy, Certain Women, First Cow), the film stars Williams alongside Hong Chau, Maryann Plunkett, John Magaro, André Benjamin, James Le Gros and Judd Hirsch. Rated R with a runtime of 108 minutes.

Following at 7pm on Thursday, June 1st, is fellow New York Times Critics Pick The Lost King. It will also screen at the Emerson.

In 2012, after having been lost for over 500 years, the remains of King Richard III were discovered beneath a carpark in Leicester. The search had been orchestrated by an amateur historian, Philippa Langley, whose unrelenting research had been met with incomprehension by her friends and family and with skepticism by experts and academics. The Lost King is the life-affirming true story of a woman who refused to be ignored and who took on the country's most eminent historians, forcing them to think again about one of the most controversial kings in England's history.

"A historical detective story that carries the kick of a true-life Da Vinci Code." - Variety Directed by Stephen Frears, the film stars Sally Hawkins, Steve Coogan, Harry Lloyd and Mark Addy. Rated PG-13 with a runtime of 105 minutes.

Reserved tickets for Showing Up and The Lost King are $10, or $7 for MSU students. Wine, beer and concessions will be available prior to the screening.

Find ticketing access and learn more about the current season at www.bozemanfilmsociety.org - and Keep 'Em Flickering! •

A tragic story of jealousy, vengeance and sacrifice, Rigoletto is one of Verdi's most popular operas. It features some of opera's most immediately recognizable music, including “Women abandon us” (“La donna è mobile”). Rigoletto is a joker and his latest wisecrack has started a vendetta that's far from funny. Now, with his daughter seduced by the dissolute Duke, Rigoletto is out for revenge. But he definitely won't have the last laugh [English National Opera].

Directed by Brenna Corner, Rigoletto features a robust cast of performers brought to life with the help of a talented backstage creative team.

Director Cara Wilder unveils local rendition of Tracy Letts' fragmented character study Livingston's Blue Slipper Theatre plays host to a special run of Mary Page Marlowe this month, from Tony and Pulitzer-winning playwright Tracy Letts. Performances are set for May 5th–7th and 11th–14th. Thursday, Friday and Saturday shows will begin at 8pm, with Sunday matinees to follow at 3pm.

Known for his complex portrayals of the human psyche, Letts expands what at first appears to be an intimate snapshot of one woman's ordinary life into a sweeping portrait chronicling seven decades, with five actresses playing the title role. In a series of elegant, nonchronological scenes, the play hopscotches through Mary Page Marlowe's quiet existence as an accountant from Ohio – complicating notions of what it means to lead a “simple life.” The show beautifully captures the fragility of life and the moments we tend to ignore as pointless, only to look back and understand how they affected our choices and life trajectory.

Bozeman actress, director and producer Cara Wilder directs a cast of 18 actors from Bozeman and Livingston. Wilder produced and acted in Letts' August: Osage County a decade ago, and will also be playing Mary in two scenes.

Other actresses playing Mary in various stages of life are Jenna Ciralli, Mary Orr, Meriweather Campbell and Jessica Lee. Rounding out the large cast are Daniel Erickson, Marc Beaudin, Lou Morris, John Henry Haseltine, Carolyn Peavy, Immanuela Meijer, Emily Jones, Beau Linnell, BB Webb, Lisa Garcia, Isabel Huston, Emma Huston and Finn Johnson.

Mary Page Marlowe premiered in 2016 at Chicago's Steppenwolf Theater Company, followed by an off-Broadway run in 2018.

The New York Times called the play, “Exquisite... Beautiful and affecting, like flipping through a friend's photo album in no particular order...” while The Wall Street Journal noted, “Tracy Letts is a poet of the ordinary, a playwright who writes about commonplace lives in uncommon ways... Mary Page Marlowe is the most purely beautiful play that Mr. Letts has given us.”

Tickets for Mary Page Marlowe are available at www.blueslipper.org. Seating at the Blue Slipper, located at 113 E. Callender St, is limited. This production is recommended for ages 15+. Please call (406) 222-7720 for more information. •

MOR exhibit explores life & work of da Vinci, plus annual opening of Living History Farm

Pairing with its famed Siebel Dinosaur Complex, a new exhibit moves into Museum of the Rockies this summer. Da Vinci the Exhibition opens May 29th and will be on display until early September.

Developed by Aurea Exhibitions and produced by Imagine Exhibitions, Inc., the exhibition is a hands-on examination of da Vinci's life, research and art. Visitors will learn about da Vinci's complex beginnings and lifetime achievements through his discoveries in art, engineering, flight, hydraulics, music, light and more. The exhibit features more than 60 fully built, life-size inventions, more than 15 fine art studies, and dozens of stunning displays.

Throughout the exhibition's themed galleries, visitors will discover the breadth and scope of da Vinci's incredibly advanced understanding of science, mathematics, nature, and the relationship between the three. The artist's intricate designs and unique early concepts are spotlighted, including his design for the helicopter, tank, SCUBA, crane, clock, and submarine and his plan for a modern city. Additionally, various multimedia experiences and documentary presentations will provide supplementary information on da Vinci's discoveries and creative process.

Each invention featured within Da Vinci the Exhibition was handcrafted utilizing a modern translation of da Vinci's unique mirrored writing style in an ancient Florentine dialect. Trained artisans used these translations to construct full-scale models and bring the master's two-dimensional plans to life.

In addition to da Vinci's role as an inventor, the exhibition investigates a collection of da Vinci's most renowned paintings, including some controversial works traditionally attributed to him but not yet authenticated. Guests will have the opportunity to thoroughly study the artistic mastery behind such works as “The Mona Lisa,” “The Last Supper,” “Portrait of a Young Man,” “Virgin of the Rocks,” “St. John the Baptist” and more.

Throughout his lifelong devotion to the sciences and fascination with nature, da Vinci also extensively explored the world of anatomy. Da Vinci the Exhibition's in-depth and enlightening explanations of his famous studies on subjects such as the golden ratio and “Vitruvian Man” are complemented by enlarged examples of the artist's sketches and notes made during his controversial research on the human body.

MOR's Living History Farm also opens for the summer season on May 29th, allowing visitors to experience what life was like in the Treasure State more than 100 years ago.

In 1989, the Tinsley House was relocated to Museum, bringing with it the history of Montana's homesteading era. Skilled costumed interpreters will take you back in time as they cook over a wood-burning stove, demonstrate cooking skills and recipes from the 1890s, tend to the Heirloom Garden, and forge iron in the blacksmith's shop. Take time this summer to enjoy the beautiful sights of the garden, the smells of home cooking, and the history of a time gone by that lives on today.

The Living History Farm is included with Museum admission. Hours are 11am–5pm. This year, register for a special course centered around cooking & crafting with the Tinsleys. Find additional information and registration details through the MOR website.

MOR is open from 9am–5pm daily. For more information about featured exhibits, membership details and to make an optional reservation, visit www.museumoftherockies.org. •

Concertgoers get their fill with diverse slate of springtime shows

There's always an opportunity to rock n' groove out at the Filling Station, one of the area's most consistent sources for live music and late night revelry. Their concerts showcase artists from a variety of genres, welcoming diverse audiences to the north Bozeman space with performances held throughout the week.

A night of the very best in regional metal kicks things off on May 2nd featuring Magazine Beach, Dank Crypt, Love Darts, and Amiskelm. Enjoy the pop punk, black metal and rock courtesy of these ensembles from Washington, D.C. and right here in the Treasure State.

Mountain Standard Time performs with help from Mint on May the Fourth. The band specializes in making audiences groove and jam. Playing a show comprised of covers and some originals sprinkled throughout, this four-piece group blends psychedelic rock with some groovy licks, creating an amazing performance for all to experience.

Electric River presents Mixtape with opening support by Hornbread during a special Cinco de Mayo on May 5th. New to the scene, the local all-star band is ready to rock your socks off with their mixture of dreamy disco-pop melted in with Southern country-rock. This band features Madeline Hawthorne (vocals, guitar), Joe Kirchner and Tyler Schultz from Pink & the Floyd (keys, organ), Brett Goodell from M.O.T.H. and Dead Sky and Sean Lehmann laying down some funky bass grooves.

Dylan Thomas Band makes it Filler debut on May 6th with help from Gallatin Ghost Train. Head down and support this punk rock artist as he performs an energetic set alongside a group of talented local instrumentalists.

Providing the live entertainment on May 7th is the Addison Lea Thompson Band and opener Spike Coggins. Addison possesses a distinctive sound based in traditional country and honky tonk, as well as a driving rock sound all his own, keeping toes tapping and hearts feeling. He incorporates a unique perspective of being a cowboy and living in the Rocky Mountains into every song, bringing a heavy hitting rocking style to the stage. His background of country, blues and rock influence his songwriting.

Sausalito Ferry performs alongside Squirrel Gravy on May 11th. Settle in for a night of greasy improvisational blues, rock, funk and beyond with this local Bozeman band.

Conductor is back to take over the Filler stage on May 12th. Bubba Fett and Rocky Fall are set to open. The avant-rock trio is based in Bozeman, with each member contributing to the songwriting and mixture of blues and punk. With influences from Jimi Hendrix to the Meat Puppets, these eclectic rockers have a reputation for igniting mosh pits. Catch them live to hear a sonic blend of stoner rock and art punk.

Tyler James presents The Broken Arrows on May 13th. The band will celebrate the music of Neil Young and Crazy Horse during this special tribute performance.

Following on May 18th are Apollo Suns with openers Transcendental Express. Born from the fusing of nine Winnipeg-based musicians, Apollo Suns have created a refreshing and innovative sound combining instrumental, jazz, rock and psychedelic music. They were awarded "Instrumental Artist of the Year" at the Western Canadian Music Awards.

Ben Larson & the Grown Ass Men entertain on May 20th with Peter King opening the show. Playing a roiling mix of old time country, rubber-necking bluegrass covers and giggle-worthy originals, this band will keep audiences grooving until way past their bedtime. Sing-alongs, blistering banjo solos and four-part harmonies will have the audience twisting their ear horns and politely asking for more.

Dave Hollier presents King Ropes alongside Los Toms and Gooch Slam on May 21st. Deemed as "psychedelic hard country garage roots rock," King Ropes spans a wide variety of genres with their atmospheric guitar, groovy drum beats, and rock vocals with a little bit of twang. Their sound has been compared to that of The Pixies and Wilco.

Mirage Electric opens for a May 25th performance by Strumbucket. The five-piece twang/funk band from Jackson, Wyoming, are known for their colorful multi-genre live shows. Drawing from a wide range of sounds, their original music weaves together funky bass grooves, banjo driven twang, latin beats, electro-psych synth lines, and classic rock guitar. Strumbucket is influenced by the likes of The Meters, Little Feat and one non-mainstream band for which they're known to cover frequently, Ween.

StiLGONE bring down the house on May 26th with opening support by Conductor and Art & Funk Collective. The band's roots are heavily steeped in soul and funk, with a dose of hip-hop. The latest iteration - influenced by frontman Symon Palmer's evolving listening tastes and metal, rock and jam band leanings from bassist Carl Hansen and guitarist Chris Cowan - is heavier. The band also features the talents of Cal Treadway (keys), Matt Sloan (sax) and Ezra Bowman (drums).

Closing out another month of shows on May 27th is Jazz Cabbage. New to the local scene, the jazz-funk fusion ensemble puts on one helluva show. Come check them out!

Armory brings fringe country group American Aquarium to Bozeman stage

Bozeman's Armory Music Hall welcomes alt-country band American Aquarium to its modern space this month. The Raleigh-based group's tour comes to the Gallatin Valley in support of their latest release, Chicamacomico. The all-ages show is set for Saturday, May 6th, with opening support from Emily Nenni. Presented in cooperation with Deco Music Group, the music begins at 8pm.

Anywhere off Hatteras Island, Chicamacomico sounds made up, like some wine-drunk incantation or maybe a tongue twister - try to say it ten times fast. But as a former life-saving station built in 1874 on the Outer Banks of North Carolina, the name is perhaps the perfect metaphor and title for American Aquarium's ninth studio album.

The Old North State is tattooed on the bones of front man BJ Barham, who has never lived more than two hours from his hometown in Reidsville. But, more so, what better to represent an album about loss than a place built to save the lives of shipwrecked mariners and passengers? Song as a sort of salvation is something Barham hopes this album can do for the band's established and growing fanbase. Sometimes when we're drowning, music keeps us afloat.

"When these massive life changes happen, we feel like we are the only ones facing these problems," Barham said. "I hope this album serves as a salve to anyone who has experienced this sort of loss over the last few years. I hope it makes them feel a little less isolated and disconnected. I want them to know that someone out there is going through the exact same shit and that they are not alone."

With tracks tackling personal loss - the loss of his mother and grandmother, the loss of a child, the loss of youth and time and the creative spark that drives him - Chicamacomico feels stripped down and bare-boned in its instrumentation compared to earlier records. The orchestration is dialed back leaving the lyrics to stand naked front and center. It's reminiscent of Rockingham, Barham's 2016 solo album, and this may be in part a result of producer Brad Cook, who produced both albums as well as the band's 2015 record, Wolves. But it's likely more a sign of the maturing sound and expanding scope of a songwriter now fully comfortable and confident in his own skin.

"When you are young, you want to play everything loud and fast and I think that comes, at least in part, from uncertainty. I hadn't fully found my voice back in those early days so the louder and faster the songs were the less chance someone could actually hear what I was saying. I'm not afraid of the lyrics sitting way out front anymore because I am confident in the songwriting. The band can still cut loose and take over a song, but they aren't expected to do all the heavy lifting these days."

Few songwriters swing the hammer as hard and precise as Barham and it is a testament to the humility and trust of his bandmates that they take the back seat and allow his storytelling to drive us home. With a heavy tour the rest of the year and a backlist of brass-knuckled bangers, each will surely have their fair share of time at the wheel.

But as for this record, be thankful for the subtlety, for the stillness and for the quiet. For ten songs, Chicamacomico will hold your head above water.

Armory Music Hall tickets are available for standing-room general admission and limited Meet & Greet packages. A complete list of upcoming performances and ticketing access is available at www.armory-musichall.com. •

Renowned guitarist Pablo Sáinz-Villegas to perform with Bozeman Symphony

Travel to the vibrant landscape of Spain as world-renowned guitarist Pablo Sáinz-Villegas joins Bozeman Symphony to share an unbridled passion for his homeland May 20th and 21st. The concert, "Postcards from Spain: Pablo Sáinz-Villegas Plays Rodrigo," also includes Debussy and Ravel's musical interpretations of Spain's cultural tapestry.

Guitarist Pablo Sáinz-Villegas has been acclaimed by the international press as the successor of Andrés Segovia and an ambassador of Spanish culture in the world. Since his debut with the New York Philharmonic under the baton of Rafael Frühbeck de Burgos at the Lincoln Center, he has played in more than 40 countries and invited to play with orchestras such as the Berlin Philharmonic, Chicago Symphony, Philharmonic of Israel, Los Angeles Philharmonic, and the National Orchestra of Spain, making him a benchmark for the symphonic guitar.

The second portion of the program features interpretations of Spain by two French composers. The first is Debussy's Images for Orchestra, L. 122:2. Ibéria. Spanish composer Manuel de Falla once said, "Debussy knew Spain from his reading, from pictures, from songs, and from dances with songs danced by true Spanish dancers." This level of intrigue that Debussy had for Spain allowed him to create a vivid and emotional portrait of the country. The final piece of the program is Ravel's Boléro. This popular piece starts with a single theme that builds consistently before finally reaching its bold climax.

Performances will be held on Saturday, May 20th at 7:30pm and Sunday, March 21st at 2:30pm, at the Willson Auditorium in Downtown Bozeman. Individual tickets are available for purchase online at www.bozemansymphony.org or by phone at (406) 585-9774. Tickets at the door based on availability. Adult tickets begin at $29 with student-discounted tickets available.

These performances would not be possible without strong community support and sponsorship. Bozeman Symphony wishes to thank Robyn L. Erlenbush, ERA Landmark Real Estate, Sal & Carol G. Lalani, Ken & Mary May, and Barbara & Ben Phinney for sponsoring this performance. Bozeman Symphony also wishes to thank season sponsors, Stephen Schachman and Ritva Porter. •

‘Burgers & BINGO’ returns to Eagles alongside regular live music & a Spring drag show

A diverse selection of live music has always attracted the crowds to Downtown Bozeman’s Eagles Bar, featuring the very best talent the Valley has to offer with regular Wednesday acoustics and weekend jamming. This month also sees the return of Burgers & BINGO every Saturday night. Here’s a look at what’s happening in the coming weeks.

Take in the acoustic stylings of local favorite Mathias on May 3rd. With powerful vocals and a percussive guitar style, he’s known for his dynamic live performances full of acoustic folk, rock, and funk tunes.

Eagles favorites Bluebelly Junction are back May 5th and 6th. The “rockabilly” group brings an arsenal of originals and personalized covers. The high-energy band tends to veer away from slow jams, other than the occasional tune.

Midweek acoustics come courtesy of Jessica Hegg with her May 10th performance. She plays older rock and country in the style of Stevie Nicks along with heartfelt originals.

Act a fool to the trailer trash rock, country and Irish tunes of Ornery Jacks May 12th and 13th. The foursome will have the audience on their feet until the cows come home.

Luke Flansburg delivers a solo show on May 17th. He’ll bring a wide variety of music ranging from funk to rock to blues. Also a member of Pinky & the Floyd, Tsunami Funk and MOTH, prepare for a fun set of covers and originals that will span the genres.

Get ready for two nights of rock n’ roll with local project Green’s Guitars on May 19th and 20th. The riff-heavy night gives audiences the opportunity of a fantastic rock show right here in Downtown Bozeman.

In the Ballroom on May 20th, the Counthship of the ISCSM hosts the “Pride & Lust Drag Show” at 7pm. Enjoy an evening of sin with this single-night event presented as part of Bozeman Pride Week. This is an 18+ event with a nominal admission.

Mario Miner Jr. of two-piece rock n’ roll project Gallatin Ghost Train performs on May 24th. Expect an evening of blues-skewing tunes and some original songs.

The Disruptors take the stage with back-to-back performances on May 26th and 27th. The high energy band does their darnedest to get audiences singing along with their wide selection of rock n’ roll tunes from the ‘60s to now.

Poison Lovers guitarist and vocalist Robert Lethert closes the month with a solo performance on May 31st. Expect a blend of old school country and contemporary Americana. His strong gravelly voice will perfectly complement your evening at the downtown tavern.

Take part in the Eagles’ weekly Bluegrass Jam Session on Monday nights. Take a seat and enjoy, or bring an instrument and join in! The event begins at 7pm.

Exercise your pipes with Karaoke Night sponsored by Bozeman’s Best Entertainment Group, setting up at FOE every Thursday. Sing your heart out and cheer on your friends! Sign-ups start at 9pm.

Back at the Eagles on Saturday nights, settle in for Burgers & Bingo at 5:30pm. Bring your appetite and luck for this favorite Eagles tradition! Live music to follow the games.

Make sure to check out Bridger Mountain Big Band on Sunday nights. The ensemble performs at 7pm. The 17-piece jazz orchestra celebrates the music of Duke Ellington, Count Basie and more, with original arrangements and music of all genres from the 1900s to today. Check them out on Facebook for performance announcements.

Acoustic Wednesdays start at 8pm and weekend bands are on at 9pm. Head downtown for some great live music or stop in to support your local Eagles any night of the week. •

Rock n’ groove poolside twice weekly at Hot Springs shows

Regular live music comes standard at Bozeman Hot Springs. The venue features an outdoor stage with weekly live music show-casing regional and traveling acts every Thursday and Sunday at 7pm. Enjoy the area’s best musicians this month.

First up, the Pinky Duo tunes up the audience on May 4th. Dustin Tucker and Luke Flansburg will bring the full band’s energy to this toned down but still hugely entertaining set. The show will feature everything from acoustic Pink Floyd covers to originals by both artists, among other selections.

Check out Daily Confused on May 7th. Playing a groovy mix of alternative rock and funk, this four-piece deems their music as “ski-rock,” even though it’s perfect for any time of the year. They play originals with a few covers scattered throughout.

Arterial Drive frontman Drew McDowell visits the Hot Springs on May 11th. With a home base of Billings, McDowell has been writing songs and performing in Montana for over five years. He plays a poppy indie rock sound with a healthy blend of amazing originals and classic covers.

Salt Lake City-based Columbia Jones & the Harpoons bring their spring tour to Bozeman on May 14th. The band uses smoky, dirty blues sounds to blend a wide variety of covers and originals. With an almost unreal mixture of instruments from a bass drum, tambourine, upright bass, guitars and harmonica, this trio can make just three people sound like a full band.

Madeline Hawthorne performs on May 18th. Following the recent release of her first solo album Boots, the singer/songwriter expertly blends folk, roots, country and soul. Hawthorne has become an expert storyteller through her music, transforming pain into beauty and doubt into hope.

Bozeman’s own Dad Habit helps soakers groove on May 21st. The funky instrumental rock comes courtesy of local musicians Garrett Rhinard on keys, Joe Sheehan on drums, John Griffith on bass, and Stephen Brown on guitar. Playing everything from covers of recognizable tunes to full jam sessions, the foursome will provide the perfect grooving experience for a fun Sunday night.

Helena-based trio Beat Deaf take the stage May 25th. They’re known for their “vaguely folkish alterna-rock” originals and select covers. Each of the band members come from very different backgrounds and musical tastes, making for an exciting musical fusion.

Eclectic funky Cole & the Thornes entertain on May 28th. The mountain-island-infused soul band is a modern funk group that blends sultry vocals, gypsy-jazz guitar, playful horn melodies and reggae-style ukulele for a truly unique sound. Check out their debut album, Mapmaker, and follow-up single “Vagabond” now.

Looking to a new month, Brice Ash kicks off summer-lite on June 1st. His performances consist of multiple genres, from classic-sounding county music to modern-styled rock music. Ash will bring a little something all will enjoy.

Bozeman Hot Springs is located just south of Four Corners. Visit www.bozeman-hot-springs.com for operating hours and further event details. •

The 12th annual event will take place July 27th–30th on the Jackson Ranch just outside of White Sulphur Springs.

This year’s main stage lineup includes Grammy-winning country legend Tanya Tucker, Grammy nominees The Wood Brothers, Larkin Poe, Marty Stuart & His Fabulous Superlatives, The War & Treaty, Ned LeDoux, American Aquarium, Stephanie Quayle, Tami Neilson, Madeline Edwards, Arlo McKinley, Kaitlin Butts, The Eagle Rock Gospel Singers, Logan Ledger, Goodnight Moonshine and Dusty the Kid & the Recession Special, along with 15 side stage performances! Denim & Dust will headline the annual kickoff street dance with opening support by Kenan Flannery.

“Our lineup is a great reflection of our mission in terms of featuring so many incredibly talented female artists. We work year-

Chico Saloon brings likes of eclectic El Wencho, rockin’ Dirty Shame to Paradise

The springtime greens are finally peeking through the thawing tundra of Southwest Montana, with spirits high for another marvelous sunny season under the Big Sky. Plan a weekend trip to Chico Hot Springs for a chance to soak the joints, feast on some delicious grub and enjoy live music in the Saloon. Here’s what’s coming up this month.

First up this month, get ready for El Wencho de Mayo on May 5th and 6th. For most people, the image of an “acoustic duo” conjures images of two soft spoken musicians singing folk rock and hippie jam songs. This is not the case with the Wench. Two original members of the Clintons, John and Josh joke, “we’re half the band, twice the party!” The guys are no strangers to throwing a rocking good time. Their show is a hotdish or “badasserole” of musical genres and style.

Helena’s Three Eyed Jack follows on May 12th and 13th. The classic and country rock trio features the talents of Mike Killeen (guitar), John Parr (bass) and Tim Borsberry (drums). Book your rooms and head over to Chico for a good ole lively time!

Veterans of the local live music scene, The Dirty Shame are back at it on May 19th and 20th. The outlaw country band has been a staple of the Montana live music scene for decades, known for their cutting originals and unique spins on songs by the likes of Willie Nelson, Waylon Jennings and Johnny Cash, among others. They released “Best Of” compilation A Few More for the Road last year.

Celebrate Memorial Day weekend with Shortchange on May 26th and 27th. The band delivers a zestful blend of blues rock, soul and reggae with every show. Let yer hair down and cut up the floor and with this lively bunch of Montana musicians.

Live Saloon music begins at 9pm. Chico Hot Springs is located in Pray, 20 miles south of Livingston. For more information and to make a reservation, visit www.chicohot-springs.com. •

Pine Creek readies outdoor stage for summer concert season, plus more Brunch tunes

The countdown to Pine Creek Lodge’s summer concert series is ON with one long month to go before the Paradise Valley venue brings a plethora of touring acts to its outdoor stage. In the meantime, support the Lodge with a weekend trip over the pass for some fantastic Brunch Live Music. Held on select Saturdays and Sundays this spring, the tunes begin at 11am and run until 1pm.

Cole Decker is first up on May 6th. The Mississippi-born singer/songwriter pulls from his musical roots of old school country. He’s influenced by the likes of Waylon Jennings and newer artists including Chris Stapleton, Brent Cobb and Jason Isbell.

Following on May 7th are Benn & Abel. The new age Americana band from Bozeman plays a mixture of originals and covers, with a new album in the works.

Maggie Hickman takes the stage May 13th. She performs a blend of originals and notable covers, often showing off her stringwork on guitar.

Chandler Huntley delivers his own solo set on May 14th. He draws influence from Johnny Cash, Merle Haggard, Guy Clark, John Prine, Robert Earl Keen and other country greats, from the current and past.

Ryan Acker is back at it on May 20th. The guitar-playing, banjo-plucking songwriter from The Last Revel plays a healthy blend of acoustic versions of the full band’s songs, one or two fun covers, and some originals of his own.

Butte-based balladeer Tom Susanj visits on May 21st. Known for his singer/songwriter style popular in the 60s and 70s, Tom’s music brings a heartfelt nostalgia for simpler times.

Annual community event spotlights challenges & joys of motherhood

The 7th annual Moms Like Me event hosted by Roots Family Collaborative will be held on Saturday, May 13th at The ELM in downtown Bozeman, as a celebration of all mothers in our community. Doors open at 4pm, with the event taking place from 5–7:30pm.
Moms Like Me will feature mothers, from our community, sharing their honest experiences of motherhood, interwoven with engaging performances from the Mom Band and a few moms with the comedic flair. Also featuring a raffle with prizes, the event is FREE and invites all mothers and those who celebrate them to attend.
Moms Like Me originated in response to a postpartum tragedy that rocked the Bozeman community in early 2016, and has since become a well-loved, community centered event for families in the greater Bozeman area to raise awareness about perinatal mental health, normalize the expectations of the perinatal period, and strengthen support networks for our growing community.

The time has always been now to celebrate mothers and through the dedication to this ever-evolving, annual event, along with on-going support groups and workshops for new families, to the yearly printing and distribution of the “Roots Perinatal Resource Guide,” local non-profit Roots Family Collaborative has stepped in to fill a glaring void by becoming the trusted connection point for both families and providers from pregnancy through early parenthood.

All members of the community are encouraged to join Roots Family Collaborative at Moms Like Me to lift up and celebrate mothers at this unique and powerful event, which creates the space to be present and witness the power of connection through storytelling and song. Bring along a friend, find those fun shoes that have been collecting dust under all the sweatpants, and let Roots celebrate you for the evening.

Eager volunteers needed for Hyalite’s annual spring tidying effort

In preparation for outdoor summer recreation, join Friends of Hyalite for its annual Spring Clean-Up Day on Saturday, May 13th beginning at noon. This is a chance to help prepare one of Bozeman’s favorite recreational areas for sun-soaked adventures. Volunteers will pick up trash, clean out fire rings, and do whatever else needs to be done to spruce up Hyalite for the summer season. Bring gloves if you have them, dress for a day outside, and don’t forget the bear spray! Tools and trash bags will be provided. The afternoon of clean-up will wrap with a volunteer appreciation gathering with food and refreshments.

Friends of Hyalite organizes this bi-annual Clean-Up in Spring and Fall with help from the Custer-Gallatin National Forest and the City of Bozeman. Over the past decade, Friends and volunteers have removed more than 10,000 pounds of garbage and recyclables from trailheads, parking lots, campsites and along roads. Clean-Up days are held before the road opens in May and on the day before rifle season begins in October.

Friends of Hyalite is a nonprofit organization dedicated to stewardship of, access to, and support for year-round recreation in Hyalite Canyon. Learn more about their efforts at www.hyalite.org. Follow on social media for current happenings and future announcements. •

May offers community chance to Give BIG for local nonprofits

The largest single giving day in Montana to raise critical funds for nonprofits in Gallatin County
From 6pm on Thursday, May 4th, through 6pm on Friday, May 5th, the One Valley Community Foundation will host its 9th annual Give Big Gallatin Valley event. This is the annual community-wide fundraiser and celebration of giving for all Gallatin County nonprofits.
Over the past eight years, our community has come together to raise nearly $11.5 million through more than 68,000 gifts for hundreds of local nonprofits during Give Big. Last year alone, 6,120 generous donors raised north of $2.8 million for 230 nonprofits. As a result, Give Big has become the largest single-day giving event in Montana.
Give Big Gallatin Valley, powered by One Valley and sponsored by Yellowstone Club Community Foundation, is a 24-hour event that brings together the community to support the nonprofits doing crucial work in Gallatin County. During the event, supporters can visit the event website to find the causes they care about and give big to local nonprofits, all in one convenient place.
With record-breaking 250 organizations participating in this year’s event, One Valley’s goal is to make Give Big 2023 the largest giving day yet! The event will feature nonprofits from numerous municipalities from across Gallatin County whose missions range from arts and community advocacy to education and environmental needs, with a non-profit for everyone to support. Give Big provides an opportunity to give back to the organizations that make Gallatin Valley a strong and vibrant community.

With the challenges presented since the onset of the pandemic, many nonprofits have had to pivot programs and learn to fulfill their missions in new ways. Because of this, nonprofits need ongoing support from the community. To help reach this year’s goal and provide these organizations with much-needed support, One Valley has teamed up with Yellowstone Club Community Foundation to encourage the community to give big on May 4th and 5th.
